WELCOME TO WORD LIVING: LEARNING TO TRUST AND OBEY THE WORD

By the grace and mercy of God we are here and thankful for the blessing and dawning of 2018. We have another opportunity to trust, obey, and share the Word to the unsaved. Let us be swift to share God's word in speech and action. For the time moves closer to his second coming and we want none to be lost.

We began in Judges Chapter 2:1-10 (KJV) When we read verse 10, those who followed God had died and there arose a generation that did not know God, nor the works that he had done for Israel.

Let's examine verse 10 for this is a message to us today. There arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel. How could this happen?

Note: How could a generation not know the Lord when God told them to teach the children. Deuteronomy

11:18-19. Could that be the problem we face today? Have we failed to tell the next generation about our Jesus? Have we failed to show our Lord to the next generation?

Perhaps we took all the credit for His blessing toward us and gave him no thank you or praise. It was me, myself, and I and the next generation built on our example.

Do our children really know how we survive from day to day? When was the last time you told them about the faithfulness of Jesus and what He means to the family?

WORD LIVING

Volume 1 / Issue 1 – January 2018

When was the last time your family prayed together? Do they know the truth about the never-failing Jesus, who's promise is everlasting? If the answer is no, you have just closed the door for the next generation to know the power of our savior.

Note: There is a price to pay for even the smallest act of disobedience and the price is costly.

View our surrounding, watch the news, observe the violence, see the lack of respect for God and mankind. Families dysfunctional, fighting, stealing, and killing as if there were no consequences for such action.

People, hiding behind the cloak of righteousness, earthly leaders following their own desires for public and financial gain. They lie without remorse as to whom it hurts and show no remorse when confronted.

If what we see is a result of our failure to teach and live by word, what will be the fate of the generations to follow?

A directive from the word is such that we have no excuse. We cannot stand before God and say, we could not, when He said we could and should.

CLOSING THOUGHT:

Son of Man, Ezekiel 3:17-18 King James Version (KJV)

Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore, hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

The peace of God be with thee until next time,
