*helping people...
help themselves*

Greetings! We hope you enjoyed the blessing of summer and a new season prepared for us before the beginning of time.

For 35+ years, we have prayed and asked God to direct our writing so that the message for his people would go forth.

Looking back at some handwritten letters, there seems to be the same painful issues that keep occurring – broken homes, selfishness, blatant disregard for God’s word, weak Christians living double lives, lower population with more incarceration, and sexual perversion dominating such that you have to be deaf and blind to miss it.

I asked, “Lord of all these things that breaks your heart today, what do you want me to say?”

In the stillness of the early morning, one word comes to mind and it would not go away.

The word is a cancer-eating sin that remains dormant in the hearts of God’s people. Many times, this cancer is hidden from the person because they have suppressed the symptoms for years and continue to live and function as if nothing was wrong.

This cancer causes stagnation and kills the ability of the person to reach their full potential. They exist, but the fullness of life has been marred and deadly spores now invade the Kardia. Kardia is the Greek word that means the thoughts or feelings (mind) of the true inner self. The place where the person feels, perceives and makes moral choices. The place where the word of God should be hidden so they might not sin against him.

These deadly spores strip away and replace the only medication that can stop its growth leaving the person weak, non-effective, alone, angry, miserable, and the list goes on.

One drop of this mind eating cancer can be deadly but there is a cure if you are willing to follow the instructions.

I HEAR YOU LORD, BUT I'M JUST NOT LISTENING

THE MIND EATING CANCER OF NOT FORGIVING

Lord, I know you said forgive but you do not understand:

- ✓ I loaned them money and they never paid it back and stopped speaking when I asked them about it. I am behind in my payments because of them.
- ✓ Lord, I was singing in the choir and they gave my song to a person that could not sing it as well as me.
- ✓ My friend stole my shoes and has the nerves to wear them to church.
- ✓ We were friends and they posted all my business on Facebook.
- ✓ He/She broke up my family and my husband/wife has move leaving me with nothing.
- ✓ My parents used my Social Security number and now I cannot get a loan for school.
- ✓ My siblings lied on me and I was punished for something I did not do.
- ✓ My co-worker and best friend presented my idea as her own and got the promotion and a raise.
- ✓ When my parents died, the family took everything and I got nothing, not even a picture.
- ✓ I trusted an investor and when I filed for retirement, all the money was gone?
- ✓ My child stole the money and never paid the insurance on the house. The day it expired the house burned and we lost everything.
- ✓ I trusted the group leader who raped my child.
- ✓ My child committed suicide because of the bully next door.
- ✓ Lord I gave all to my job. I worked extra hours so projects were completed on time. Now, they are cutting staff and the ones I trained still have a job but I don't.
- ✓ Lord, I was faithful to my spouse, but now I have a disease because of unfaithfulness.
- ✓ Lord, my wife/my husband gambled away our life savings.
- ✓ Members of my family abused me.
- ✓ The pain is too deep. It hurts too much.
- ✓ I cannot function because of what they did to me.

And the list continues ...
